

I urge the FCC to reject changes that would allow even more corporate control of local media.